forty years ago and has a son and daughter older than Miss Kennedy.

"Madam," said Magistrate Furlong, "is this man your husband?"

"Yes," answered Miss Kennedy. "I married him seventeen years ago. After my baby was born I received a telegram from Florida saying that my husband was dead. A letter, signed George Elliott, was also received, saying that I was to receive 325,000 as his widow. I never received a cent. Then a woman came to see me who said she was his wife and that his name was Richard Pyatt."

"Madam," said the Court, "you are not a wife. I advise you to proceed against this man for bigamy. I will hold him until Jan. 14 for further investigation."
